Healthy Business Climate

The City of Lebanon had a Vision Committee work for a year in 2012-13 to explore ways to position the community as a great place to live, work and do business. The quest for an appropriate tagline was met with "Lebanon. The Place To Grow." – created by SkyLimit Marketing.

Businesses in Lancaster and other surrounding areas are pursuing the same goals. Is it time to involve professional marketing counsel to help make it happen?

Let me put my years of successful experience both practicing and teaching marketing to work in concert with you. There is no obligation for the first meeting.
